Miss Okie's Engagement To R. L. Crawford 3d Off
Reported Broken by Religious Differences; Wedding Was Planned for St. Patrick's
Mrs. Edwin Abbot Schroeder, of 162 East Sixty-fourth Street, announced yesterday that the engagement of her daughter, Miss Catherine Okie, to Robert L. Crawford 3d, had been broken by mutual consent. As the wedding was to have taken place on February 18, and elaborate preparations had been made for a pretentious ceremony at St. Patrick's Cathedral, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, the announcement came as a decided shock to society.

Both Miss Okie and Mr. Crawford are popular in the younger set. No reason for the breaking of the engagement has been given by members of either family, but among the intimates of the couple it is said that the religious beliefs that at the last moment they found to be irreconcilable.

Miss Okie has been a prominent figure in the social affairs of the city for the winter, and Mr. Crawford, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Crawford, of White Plains and New York, is equally well known in society circles. He lives at the Union Club.

Publicity First Step in League Fight on Drugs

New Organization to Control Narcotics Seeks More Legislation and Enforcement of the Laws

Morphine Trade Scored

Bishop Manning Presides at Conference, Which Hears Details of Traffic

The inaugural conference of the Narcotic Drug Control League, the first national-wide organization formed in this country to campaign against the use of cocaine and opium, was held in the assembly room of the Colony Club last night.

Bishop William T. Manning, who presided, briefly set forth the program of the league. A publicity campaign on a large scale is to be the first step, to give the public information as to the actual menace of narcotic addiction here and abroad. A legislative program subsequently will be presented and assistance will be given to those in charge of enforcing the drug laws by special investigative work. At the same time the organization will bring pressure to bear upon the Federal government to take the lead in renewed international action, especially for the restriction of poppy cultivation to the estimated medical demand.

Bishop Brent Tells of U. S. Exports
Chief among the speakers were Bishop Charles H. Brent, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Western New York, and Sara Graham Mulhall, deputy drug commissioner under Governor Smith, who was the principal agitator for the founding of the league. The former devoted his address mainly to the international situation, declaring that the country has in the past taken the lead in this line and today is falling behind.

In this connection he remarked that America today has the largest manufacturing output of morphine in the world, and that its exports are responsible for much of the drug addiction in China and Japan. A subsequent speaker declared that New York alone exports more morphine to supply almost all the legitimate demand for all nations, and that in 1919 Seattle alone shipped more than $1,000,000 worth of the drug.

Society at Benefit for Palm Beach Hospital
Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Miss Strebeigh are at Everglades Club.
Special Dispatch to The Tribune
PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 20.—A benefit motion picture entertainment and lawn tea was given this afternoon at the Everglades Club for the benefit of the Palm Beach Hospital. Mrs. B. Baker and Mrs. E. M. Betsford were in charge of the tables. Mrs. Charles W. Temple and Mrs. Francis N. Mann presided. Other committee members were Mrs. George Morgan Ward, Mrs. E. D. Warren, Mrs. R. H. Macy, Mrs. E. D. Anthony and Mrs. D. F. Dunke.

Blames Legitimate Trade
Miss Mulhall placed the blame for this condition largely upon the legitimate trade, declaring that while in office she had found one doctor prescribing morphine to patients in twenty-four days and another prescribing drugs for a thousand patients in a month. She declared that the opium trade is not controlled by the underworld, but by men of position who resist the temptation of the great profits which can be made in this line.

The three most definite steps proposed by the league are: first, the prohibition of the sale of heroin, declared by physicians to be unnecessary and injurious; the passing of a model narcotic law in this state, where no such law is now in effect; and, second, the Federal government to increase its appropriation for enforcing the Harrison law. At present, it was pointed out, less money is spent to enforce the law than is derived from its operation. There are only 170 agents for the entire country and no one for the State of New York.

Besides Bishop Brent and Miss Mulhall, the speakers were: Dr. Joseph I. Silverman, rabbi emeritus of Temple Emanu-El; Dr. John J. Brady, chairman of the Catholic Hospital Board; Health Commissioner Royal S. Copeland; Justice Cornelius Collins, of the Children's Court; Dr. Carlton Simon, of the Children's Hospital; Dr. C. H. Greenleaf, of Boston, have arrived for their annual session. E. B. Maclean and Malcolm Maclean, of New York, will make a short tour here, as the Poinciana for a short time before going farther south.

Wood Seeks to Restore Credit of Philipines
Advices $22,500,000 Loan and Parity of Silver Pesos With Gold Standard
MANILA, P. I., Jan. 20.—Legislation to restore the credit of the Philippine government both at home and abroad was urged by Governor General Wood today. The Governor recommended that the government be placed in a position to maintain the parity of the silver peso with the gold standard peso and that the gold standard fund be built up to at least 15 per cent of the outstanding silver and paper currency. The message says:

"The necessity for providing so great a sum is largely due to the fact that the present currency reserve funds are short of the legal requirements by approximately $25,000,000, represented by the National Bank of the Philippines. Liquid loans and therefore unavailable for a long period."

A bill which accompanied the message would establish the gold peso as the unit of maturity value in the Philippines. Legal tender would be silver peso and half peso and United States gold coins at the rate of $1 for two pesos.

Slump in Lining Cost Shown
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Figures on the cost of living in twenty-one cities to-day by the Bureau of Labor Statistics show the Department of Commerce showed declines from June, 1920, to December, 1921, ranging from 12.5 per cent at Los Angeles to 21.6 per cent at Cincinnati.

Debutantes to Report at 6 A.M. To Be Waitresses for a Day

Girls Who Volunteer for Duty at Biltmore to Aid Tuberculosis Fund Will Form Hotel Staff From Aviary Tenders to Newsstand Venders

Six a. m. is the hour at which the society "buds" who volunteer for waitress duty at the Hotel Biltmore on February 20 must report for work. A concession of only half an hour in the cold gray dawn will be made to the young women who come from Fifth Avenue to pour coffee and sell newspapers to the patrons of the hotel that day.

The regular employees of the hotel have to be on duty at 5:30 for early breakfasts, but the working day of the Society for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis, Inc., will begin at 6 o'clock.

Any debutante who thinks that taking over the duties of a hotel waitress in order that the sales and tips may help swell the treasury of the tuberculosis fighters means going to work at lunchtime and sticking it out until midnight. The amateurs are expected to fulfill all the obligations of the hotel to its guests, and if people will sleep on sleepers that reach the Grand Central at 7 o'clock they must be fed even as those who travel and eat by day.

Mrs. Ned Arden Flood is chairman of the committee, which has charge of recruiting a "countdown" of girls, and the committee declines to make public any list of names until the forces are mustered.

Some of the old jobs which will fall to the lot of the amateur hotel employees were described for the benefit of those whose tastes rebel against carrying trays and filling water glasses. For the young women whose talents lie in the direction of caring for pets there is the kennel on the roof of the Biltmore, which houses an average of thirty thoroughbreds a day, ranging from Pomeranians to wolfhounds. They all have to be exercised and combed and fed and petted by the hotel staff. There is also an aviary which houses several pet birds.

A job which will keep some volunteer out in the open air all day is that of carriage starter. It is stipulated in the contract that the amateurs are not to open taxi doors or carry luggage, but there are still several positions as starters requiring no physical prowess which the women will fill.

The hotel publicity man is looking forward to breaking in a few debutantes as his aids. Society girls whose names are famous in the golf world are to help out the professionals in the golf clubhouse.

All in all, the committee believes that it can provide women experts for every department of the hotel in which the publicity campaign is being conducted. The publicity man is looking forward to breaking in a few debutantes as his aids. Society girls whose names are famous in the golf world are to help out the professionals in the golf clubhouse.

Poland on Gold Basis
Soon, Says De St. Phalle
Rapid Return to Normal Laid to Thrift, by Baldwin Locomotive Works Official
Poland will be the first country of central Europe to get back on a gold basis, says a short time will rank as the third power of Europe. Financially, Poland is in a bad way, but the Baldwin Locomotive Works, said last night, addressing a meeting at Columbia University, is giving credit for this rapid return to normal to the abundant natural resources of the country and the fact that the people are willing to save and work at a low wage.

Poland offers a market to American cotton, textile machinery, machine tools and railroad equipment, but after a year's delay in the purchase of goods, De St. Phalle, a member of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, said last night, with a promise of duplication this year, will make unnecessary the Hoover relief after spring and will leave wheat to Poland.

The unwillingness of the people of the central European countries to pay taxes and the disinclination of the government to add to the burden is the cause of the present situation, said De St. Phalle. He said that the situation in Poland, where taxes are being levied on the people, is not so much a success that an equilibrium in exchange is not far distant.
